'WILFUL GROUP' MAKES REPLY

Senators Who Opposed Resolution to Give Wilson More Power Deny
They Were Filibustering

(By United Press.)

Washington, March 6.—"To set Europe right" on the position of the United States in the international situation, today president Wilson has instructed that copies of his inaugural address be brought to the attention of all foreign governments as "information."

Some of the "little group of wilful men" who prevented 77 United States senators from voting President Wilson the power he asked to protect American lives and property at sea took up most of the first hour and thirty minutes of the senate's time when it convened today.

Those who spoke today denied they participated in a filibuster. They said they "merely insisted on their constitutional rights to discuss any question before the senate."

Senator Lodge, republican, this afternoon introduced an armed neutrality bill in the senate. Senator Owen moved that the introduction of the bill was not in order. Owen held that the senate foreign relations committee to which the bill was to be referred had died with the sixty-fourth congress Sunday.

Vice-President Marshall in the chair sustained Senator Owen. Senator Thomas then declared that inasmuch as congress was not in session Senator Lodge's bill was not in order. The chair sustained Thomas.

No legal opinion had been received by President Wilson regarding his right to arm merchantmen without the consent of congress.

While the arming of merchantmen is the step most considered, it is pointed out that the president has the right to convoy American vessels. This course has been opposed by the navy department, however, principally for strategic reasons.

Another step suggested is that the shipping board take over American merchantmen, arm them as naval auxiliaries and send them abroad.

The president has been inclined to believe that certain old statutes still in force might prevent him from supplying guns to merchantmen, but some of his advisers hold that a broader and truer interpretation of these laws will show that they have no application to the present situation.

PLOT AGAINST INDIA, CHARGE

Hindu Magician and German are Placed Under Arrest in New York

(By United Press.)

New York, March 6.—Dr. Chander Chakraborty, a Hindu magician, and Dr. Ernest Sekanner, a German, are under arrest at New York police headquarters charged with starting a military expedition against a friendly nation.

The two admitted that they had received $60,000 from Wolf Von Igel, alleged German plotter.

The object of the plot, according to police, was to start a revolution in India.

WINTER IS ROUTED TODAY

Benificent Sun Melts Snow and Brings Mercury Up Fast.

A benificent sun was putting winter to rout today and indicated a return of springlike weather tonight and tomorrow. The temperature mounted fast during the middle of the day and this afternoon the rout of winter seemed complete. The mercury rose to forty-five above zero, the sky was clear and the heavy snow of Sunday disappeared fast. Although a raw, March wind blew, the day was pleasant compared with Sunday. Rain and warmer weather is predicted for tonight and tomorrow.

TO GIVE ART LECTURES
AT THE HIGH SCHOOLMiss Bessie Snow of New York City
Will Speak Twice Tomorrow—
Open to Public at Night

ITS VALUE TO BE EMPHASIZED

The high school is thought unusually fortunate to obtain Miss Bessie Snow of New York City for two lectures on art to be delivered tomorrow afternoon and evening. The lecture in the evening is open to the public and will be given in the assembly room of the Graham high school. All those who are interested in art, its industrial and practical value, are urged to attend and hear Miss Snow. The lectures are particularly interesting to the high school students at this time, as a set of books on industrial art education has been recently added to the school library.

In connection with her talks, Miss Snow will have an exhibit of some of the work done in schools, showing what can be done by students in a practical and beneficial way through the study of art. Her suggestions include decorative schemes, designing clothing and many phases of industrial art. In the afternoon, Miss Snow will speak to the teachers of the lower grades at 3 o'clock, and in the evening the lecture will take the place of an institute lecture. Miss Snow is only stopping at six cities in Indiana. She comes here from Connerville and she has also spoken in Anderson and Richmond.

NEUTRAL RIGHTS VIOLATED

Washington, March 6.—Lieutenant Hans Burg's heroic trip across the Atlantic with the British steamer Appam, captured by the German raider Moewe proved futile today when the supreme court awarded the vessel to her British owners.

Justice Day held the Appam's use of a United States port when she could have touched at a European neutral port and saved 3,000 miles of its journey was a clear violation of the neutral rights of the United States.

The courts of the United States, he said, can not be used by belligerents as arbitrators.

VOTE NOT LIKELY
OVER 50 PERCENTIndications Not More Than Half Ballots Cast in 1913 Would be Voted in Primary

NOT MUCH INTEREST SHOWN

Republican Race for Mayor and Democratic and Republican Races for Clerk Hold Attention

There was every indication this afternoon that Rushville would not cast much more than fifty per cent of the vote of the last city election in its first city primary held today.

Returns from all the precincts about one o'clock indicated this. The voting was very slow. For example, at nine o'clock this morning only thirty-eight votes had been cast in the first precinct, and in that precinct on November 4, 1913 a total of 199 votes were cast for the three candidates for mayor. This same ratio was practically obtained in all six precincts.

Interest centered for the most part on the democratic race for city clerk and the republican races for mayor and clerk. The democrats had no race for any office but clerk, whereas there were contests for every nomination on the republican ticket except councilman-at-large.

In precinct No. 1, which voted at the Catholic school, only sixty-five votes had been cast at noon. There were 199 votes in that precinct in the last city election.

In precinct No. 2, which voted at the court house assembly room, at noon 117 votes had been voted at one o'clock. The poll books showed 141 republicans and 83 democrats, but only 204 votes were cast in that precinct in 1913.

In the third precinct sixty-eight votes had been cast at one o'clock. There were 198 votes in that precinct at the last city election. The voting place was in J. Q. Thomas' office in Second street.

In the fourth precinct, which voted at John A. Spurrier's piano store, seventy-four ballots had been voted at one o'clock. There were 211 votes in that precinct in 1913.

In the fifth precinct, which voted at the Ford residence at the corner of Sexton and Fourth street, 210 votes had been cast early this afternoon. That is the biggest precinct in the city. In the last city election 476 votes were cast there.

In the sixth precinct, voting at A. B. Irvin's garage, 68 votes had been cast about 1:30 o'clock. There were 199 ballots cast in that precinct in last city election.

It appeared that the race for the republican nomination for mayor lay between the present incumbent, Clara L. Bebout, and A. B. Irvin. There wasn't much doubt but that one of them would be the nominee as it was not thought Harley Frazier had a chance.

No one would scarcely venture a guess on the city clerk's race. It was a pretty one for either party. Although there were some republicans who thought the nominee would be either Earl Osborne or Walter Easley, still others felt that Albert J. Sweet had a chance.

Five candidates sought the democratic nomination for the same office. It was about as uncertain as the republican contest. The candidates were Wilbur W. Stevens, Charles G. Newkirk, Sam Morgan, Osro Farthing and Frederick Boxley.

The race for the republican nomination for treasurer was thought to be a stand-off between George Helm and Fred Gale. Knowles Casady was unopposed for the nomination for the same office.

John D. Megee had everything his own way in the democratic mayoralty race, being unopposed. John Crowley and Walter R. Thomas were democratic candidates for council.

OFFER SERVICES
IN CASE OF WARMembers of Women's Council Pledge
Themselves to Aid by Affiliating With Red Cross Society

WILL CO-OPERATE LOCALLY

Also Offer Assistance to City Council in Making "Clean-up" Week
a Success This Spring

As an expression of their patriotism, the members of the Women's council representing the women's organizations of the city have sent a pledge to the American Red Cross society showing that, in case of war, they are willing to do any war relief work possible in their homes. Nothing will be done, of course, by the council unless the country goes to war, and in that case the women have pledged themselves to do anything asked by the Red Cross society and to co-operate with other organizations in the county doing similar work. This was decided at the meeting held in the directors room of the Rushville National Bank last evening.

A copy of the pledge has been sent to the Bureau of Nursing of the Red Cross society and another copy kept on record. It reads as follows:

"Pursuant to the call for women volunteers for war relief work from the Bureau of Nursing Service of the American Red Cross Society, the Women's Council of Rushville, Indiana, a body of 27 women, composed of one delegate from each women's organization of the city of Rushville, offers its services to its country. The council resolves itself into a body of lay women for war relief work to be done at home subject to the instruction from the National Bureau of Nursing and as such body agrees to co-operate and affiliate with any or all organizations pledged to such work in Rush county."

Similar action has been taken by a number of women's organizations in the country.

The members of the council also decided to offer their services to the city council for any assistance they might give the council in the annual "Clean-up" week. The movement is forwarded by the city council and the women are anxious to co-operate in making it a success.

The Flower Show which is to be conducted by the Women's Council has already created an interest among the school children. The seeds and bulbs have already been distributed at a nominal sum, and the prizes are offered as an inducement for the children to beautify their yards by means of flowers and gardens. The flower show will probably be held about Chautauqua time, which is the time set previously for similar shows. This year, however, it is to be more extensive than previously. In order to deal with the children fairly, the city is to be divided into districts, probably four, and the same prizes offered for each species of flowers in each district.

The division of the districts, the means of procuring money for the prizes, and the time of the flower show are all left to the committee appointed last evening by the vice-president, Mrs. Stewart. The committee is composed of Mrs. R. C. Hargrove, chairman, Miss Marjorie Smith, Miss Belle Gregg, Mrs. John Cooning, Miss Alma Green, Mrs. Robert Innis, Mrs. Jane Kincaid, Mrs. Dan Matlock, Mrs. Lewis Sexton, Mrs. Bert Trabue, Mrs. C. J. Tucker and Mrs. Selman Webb.

In response to a request from Miss Straight, the visiting nurse, $25 a month was allowed for transportation money, aside from her salary of $85 a month. This money is allowed in order that Miss Straight may reach the distant districts of the city more quickly, that she may

Large Crowd Attends County Meeting of Knights of Pythias

A large crowd attended the county meeting of the Knights of Pythias lodge at Castle hall here last night. There was an enthusiastic delegation from Milroy where the other lodge besides Ivy lodge is situated. Eight candidates, two from Milroy and six from Ivy lodge, were given the third rank. On account of the time required for the degree work, the program of speeches had to be cut short and Judge Will M. Sparks spoke only briefly. Cigars were provided.

CAN'T GIVE UP RIGHT
TO SINK ENEMY BOATSAustria, However, Does Not Include Neutral Merchant Ships in This Class, Note Declares

DESIRE TO AVOID BREAK SEEN

(By United Press.)

Washington, March 6.—"Austria can not give up her rights to sink enemy merchantmen," she declares in her reply to the American inquiry regarding her stand on Germany's unlimited submarine orders received at the state department.

Austria does not, however, include neutral merchant ships under this rank. Authorities believe that she has stretched a point in order to meet the American effort to avoid a break. Her word, officials said, indicated a desire on Austria's part to avoid a break with the United States even though she supports the theory of Germany's unlimited submarine warfare.

Authorities feel that in view of Austria's efforts to prevent a break it would be advisable at this time to await developments to see if she carries out submarine warfare against vessels other than enemy merchantmen.

Austria's reply is far less conclusive than her original note sent shortly after Germany's barred zone degree and in which she upheld strongly the German intention.

JUNK SALE REDUCES
COST OF THE ROOFNet Figure is $18,123.09 for Repair of Court House, it is Found
When Last Payment is Made

COPPER AND IRON, $794.99

The new roof on the court house cost the sum of $18,123.09 after the county had sold as junk the old copper and iron. Final settlement for the roof was made yesterday by the commissioners when Geers and Behringer of Richmond, the contractors received the last sum due on the roof.

The roof cost the gross sum of $18,918.08. The commissioners sold the copper and old iron for $794.99, making the roof cost the net sum of $18,123.09. The commissioners believe the sum well spent as the roof is the best that could be obtained and is put on so as to last for years.

The contract price for the roof was $12,000. This did not include the roof on the tower, which was put on extra, bringing the total cost to a figure in excess of the contract price.

HIGHWAY BILL IS
FINALLY APPROVEDAmended at Last Moment to Provide Commissioners May Let Contracts Under Supervision.

SUNDAY MOVIE BILL PASSES

Commission is Provided, Expenses to be Paid by a Tax Levied on Show Owners.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 6.—The much-demanded highway commission bill was passed by both houses of the general assembly early this morning by adoption of the conference committee's report. The principal amendment is that by which the county commissioners are empowered to let contracts for roads under the direction of the state highway engineer and unless the commissioners and engineers agree on contracts within five days the matter is taken out of their hands by the state highway commission. An appropriation of $100,000 for the first year and $500,000 for the second year is provided.

The McCray Sunday moving picture bill was amended by a conference committee consisting of Senators McCray and Culbertson and Representatives Myers and Geddes. The committee redrafted the House amendment providing for a board of censors, providing that the board shall have power to prohibit "immoral, indecent or licentious" pictures. To defray the commission's expenses a special license fee on all motion picture theaters is established according to class of cities and towns as follows: First-class cities $25 annually; second class, $20; third class, $15; fourth class, $10; fifth class, including theaters in towns and rural districts, $5. Three members of the commission, to be appointed by the Governor, will receive $1,000 each annually, and provision is made for a secretary at $900 a year. Any residue from the annual collections of the commission will go into the general fund. The amendment provides that exhibitors refusing to obey the decisions of the commission on objectionable films shall be subject to a fine of $25 a day for such refusal, and the commission may revoke their licenses. Both houses accepted the conference amendment. The bill was transmitted to the senate yesterday, after passage in the house Saturday, Speaker Eschbach having made sure that Representative Bayer, a democrat, cast his vote in favor of the bill. A question arose Saturday evening as to how Bayer voted. Without his vote the bill would not have had a constitutional majority.

The senate killed the McClaskey bill for the collection of automobile license fees in counties, instead of by the secretary of state. Senator Hirsch, democrat, led the fight against the measure, saying the legislature has killed the same measure three times in previous sessions, and that it should maintain its record. The vote was 22 to 20. The Bartel bill, authorizing cities to institute the commission form of government where they so desire, was killed, 20 to 24.

The oil inspection bill, an administration measure in the interest of efficiency and economy, suffered from a democratic ax in the closing hours. The bill was killed on a motion to indefinitely postpone, made by Senator VanAnken, democrat, and the final vote was 25 in favor of indefinitely postponing the measure and 21 in favor of its passage.

As it now stands the office of reporter of the supreme court will not be abolished, as the oil inspection bill was a rider on the former measure. The bill abolishing the office of reporter was passed by the senate, and when it went to the house the rider, abolishing the oil inspection, was attached to it.

FARM LABORERS ARE LIKELY TO GET MORE

Increase is Probable in View of Labor and High Prices Being Received

MORE POTATOES TO BE GROWN

The combination of the highest prices offered for farm products the world has known in many generations and of the scarcity of farm laborers is expected to result in an increase in wages of farm hands, according to local farmers who are now having difficulty in employing help, understood to be willing to do farm work. The wages being offered are understood to be from $20 a month and up. This, of course, includes board, room and washing. One instance is known of a married man who was offered $1.25 a day the year around, a house to live in, a cow, his meat and the chance to raise all of his garden stuff.

Farmers are planning to raise more of the crops for which the higher prices now are paid, such as potatoes, beans and the like. With potatoes, close to $4 a bushel and beans beyond the $7 a bushel mark, indications point to high prices obtaining for both next year, which will make them profitable crops even though large yields are not obtained. The raising of such crops on a large scale will mean the employment of more farm labor than is required for wheat, corn and like cereal crops.

A great deal of interest is being manifested in the sewing school which is to be started, offering free instruction to those wishing to learn to sew. The previous sewing school conducted by Mrs. Nelle Betker was such a success that added interest is connected with the new one. The school would have been dismissed during the summer months and for that reason it has been decided to postpone the starting of it until early fall, for it would have been dismissed for this season shortly after the organization.

There was an excellent attendance at the meeting last evening. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. A. L. Stewart, vice-president. The council will meet again Monday evening, April 2.

F. G. Argenta."

Michigan City, Ind., March 5.—"I feel better since taking this new medicine, Tanlac, than I've felt for months," F. G. Argenta, proprietor of the Royal Cigar Company, who lives at 808 West Ninth street, this city, said on December 16. Mr. Argenta is one of this city's best known business men.

"For a number of months I have suffered from stomach trouble," he continued. "I had no desire for food and what little I did eat didn't agree with me. I was in a constipated condition usually. It was necessary for me to use laxatives nearly all the time. Gas often accumulated in my stomach and sometimes it made me sick. My kidneys also were out of order. Severe pains in my back bothered me."

"I've taken two bottles of Tanlac now and my condition is much improved. I eat my meals regularly now and enjoy my food. What I eat is digested properly, too. I'm never bothered with constipation now. I seem to be gaining strength every day."

"Yes, I feel better now than for months and I want to recommend Tanlac for others."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints and the like and is a fine reconstructive tonic having proved excellent in countless cases for building up the system and relieving the after effects of la grippe, pneumonia or a severe cold.

Tanlac is now being specially introduced and explained in Rushville at F. E. Wolcott's Drug Store; in Arlington at Mrs. L. T. Davis's; in Carthage at J. H. McCarthy and Sons and in Milroy at Barton's and Sheppards. (Adv.)

Beef Compared with Floorcoverings

The fact that all good rugs are made of wool does not mean that they are all alike. A cow may be all beef, but it's equally true that all beef is not sirloin. When you want a good steak you must designate the cut and when you want a rug or carpet you must do the same thing. There is just as much difference between Whittall Rugs and Carpets and the average as there is between sirloin and beef bone.

The Teprac is an all wool Wilton Rug. The colors are guaranteed to be fast, has a high pile with wonderful wearing qualities. Any one you may select will give you good wear and will be a rug you may well be proud of.

Body Brussels Rugs, representing the very highest type of this kind of a rug that can be produced. A most desirable rug in a great many places, handsome patterns, rich colorings, satisfying every requirement. Prices are moderate, quality considered.

A Peerless Rug will satisfy the most critical taste, and as the name implies is of unequalled excellence. Strictly all worsted, a Brussels fabric but slightly different from the Chlidema. Will give efficient service, has luxurious and rich effects.

These rugs are the very finest produced in this country, the yarns and dyes being of foreign importation. Connoisseurs ever on the alert for choice rugs, will tell you that Whittall Anglo-Persian Rugs are without duplication, both in design and coloring.

Whittall Rugs are sold at standard prices... We show Anglo Persians, Anglo Indias, Teprac, Chlidemas and Peerless Rugs in all sizes. The Anglo Persian is given up to be the best Domestic Rug made. They are the closest woven, finest texture worsted Wiltons. Others may cost a little less, but each Whittall Rug at its price is the best rug you can possibly get for the money expended.

senators joined again yesterday afternoon to defeat another administration measure when the Kuhlman bill, requiring state officials to turn over fees to the state treasury within sixty days after their collection, was killed by a vote of 22 to 23. The measure got before the senate in an orderly way, it being among a mass of other bills that were called up for third reading at the afternoon session.

Through an agreement between majority and minority members of the house, belated action on several bills was speeded up in the house at the night session by "bunching" bills on third reading. This matter came through the approval of a motion to authorize the speaker to appoint a joint committee of six members to examine all the bills on third reading and combine them in bunches of from two to four. Each bill was read and action taken on each bunch of bills was taken at one roll call. Objection of any member being considered in connection with any other bill, was sufficient to halt action. Representatives McNagney, Durham, Walker, Miltenberger, Mendenhall and Dilworth were appointed to pass on the work of bunching the bills.

The Wiking Workers class of the First Baptist church will give a box social in the basement of the church tomorrow evening. The girls the requested to bring boxes.

To Fight Old H. C. L.

The Indiana Retail Shoe Dealers' association is to be commended for its announced intention to fight the high cost of shoes. Raymond D. Brown, president of the association, says the members will discuss conditions of the market and ways and means of stopping the rapid increase in the price of leather products that the pocketbook of the wage earner, which is already overtaxed by the high cost of living, may be able to spare moderate sums for comfortable and good footwear.

"Everyone knows by this time," Mr. Brown said, "that the demand for leather brought on by the European war has created an unusual scarcity in this country, but few men realize to what extent the shoe industry has tried to offset the burden of increased cost by finding substitutes for leather that are just as attractive and wearable.

"As these products mean a money-saving without lessening the wearing quality of the shoe, it is the duty of the shoe man to the public to encourage their use. If this is done the shoe retailers will find the public back of them in their attempts to care for shoe costs in a sane and sensible manner.

"Misleading statements have been made frequently to the effect that shoes will soon cost $20 a pair. These statements are misleading. There always will be and always have been some fancy shoes retailing at such prices, but the prices of good quality, everyday footwear are going to be kept in reasonable bounds say $4 to $10 for a good wearing and appearing man's or woman's shoe. Investigation will show that shoe retailers have not taken advantage of the public to make exorbitant profits as a result of market conditions, but if the facts were known, it would be easy to determine that the entire industry has been devoting strenuous efforts to the task of producing good shoes that will be in reach of the masses of our population."

North and South Joined.

An excellent example of how the North and the South have been solidified in a half century is found in the patriotic outburst of Representative Stedman of North Carolina, a confederate veteran, during debate in congress on the armed neutrality bill.

"The house ought to send a message to all nations," he said, "that it will protect its rights, the lives of its people and the American flag in its pristine splendor, wherever it may float over land or sea."

The "rebel" yell resounded throughout the chamber as he concluded, the dispatch stated. Some of the Northern representatives and Senators can find in the one-time confederate soldier an example they could well emulate.

Pity the women of Germany! The imperial clothing committee has issued a warning that styles in women's clothing can not be allowed to change every six months. The committee says women may wear winter dresses throughout the coming summer and winter without disgrace and drastic measures will be taken against a change in fashion and consequent expense. Better might they be sent to the trenches and suffer a less painful death!

The Wayne county assessor has decided that potatoes shall be assessed at three dollars a bushel. That seems equitable enough but who's going to keep any spuds in the cellar when they can be converted into non-taxable road bonds any time?

DID YOU EVER SEE A CAT STRIKE?

Sleepy old cat lying by a rat hole. Lazy, half asleep—then biff!

Say, if you could strike as quick and hard as that you could make Jess Willard look sick! Why don't you let your tired body muscles sleep until the right moment—and then—biff! It's all in being able to relax.

One of the greatest aids ever given to man for soothing tired muscles, overworked muscles, is Speedway Liniment. It goes right in through the skin and relieves those sore, overworked ligaments. It's soothing—restful—and wonderfully upbuilding. Trouble with most people is that there are too many little biffs, little throbs, little aches that we don't take care of and soon the muscles lose their pep and comeback. Try Speedway Liniment. Put it on full strength with a good brisk rub. It does not blister—nor stain—nor injure the most delicate fabric. Pleasant to use as toilet water. Relieves neuralgia, rheumatism, sprains, bruises, soreness anywhere. In 25c, 50c and $1.00 sizes at Hargrove & Mullin and F. B. Johnson & Co. Just try it.—(Adv.)

MUCH DEPENDS ON BARRY'S ABILITY

Whether Red Sox Repeat This Year is Largely up to the New Manager

SAME TEAM AS LAST YEAR

Infield to Present Same Faces But Outfield May Witness One Change

Boiston, March 5.—Whether Boston can repeat its American league championship again this year depends, it is admitted, upon whether Jack Barry, new manager of the world's champions, can drive his men to the same speed attained by Bill Carrigan.

Jack started south today with his first string men. Battery men and newspapermen were in the party that climbed aboard a train here for Hot Springs, Ark., where the team again will condition itself.

Charles Wagner, Joseph Devine, Forest Cady, and battery men not in Boston will join the train enroute.

The Red Sox present the same solid front this year as a year ago. The battery men appear, if anything, to be slightly stronger than when they took the championship, and if that's the case little more could be expected.

Babe Ruth, southpaw star, should be better this year. He has had more experience. Wyckoff and Pennock, two hurlers who have been a long time arriving, are expected to show at their best this year. Joe Wood's arm, on his own declaration, is ready for another long season. George Foster says he has recovered his cunning and will accompany the first party to Hot Springs. Dutch Leonard, Ernest Shore and Carl Mays are expected to be just as good as ever.

The outfield probably will be composed of the veterans Lewis and Hooper, with Clarence Walker and Chick Shorten alternating in the middle garden against right and left-hand pitching. This is an outfield which stands out as one of the best in the game, combining fielding with hitting power.

There is nothing uncertain about the infield. Dick Hoblitzel and Del Gainer are available for first base duty. Manager Jack will be at second. Everett Scott at shortstop and Larry Gardner at third base. There will be no deviation from this unless Harold Janvrin is played for a time at second in order to give Barry a chance for rest.

The infield defense of the Red Sox is only slightly less efficient than the remarkable pitching staff which has lifted the Sox into two world's championships in as many years. It is a defense which tightens with such a visible force that it is almost impossible for an opposing team to send a winning run over in a close game. The presence of Jack Barry, balancing every cog, the coolness of the veteran Gardner, has balanced this club as no other in the country.

The Red Sox and the Dodgers will open a series of spring exhibition games when they appear March 28 in Memphis. From there they will go to Little Rock for March 29; Oklahoma City, March 30; Kansas City, Mo., March 31 and April 1; Davenport, Iowa, April 2; Peoria, Ill., April 3; Indianapolis, April 4; Lafayette, Ind., April 5. The teams will separate at Lafayette, the Red Sox going to Toledo for a game April 7.

"SAVE THE BABIES."

These are authentic quotations from the pamphlet on babies by Dr. L. Emmett Holt of Columbia University and Dr. Henry L. K. Shaw of Union University.

Tea, coffee, cider, wine, beer, soda-water, and candy should never be given to a young child. The juice of fresh fruits may be given after 12 months. Cooked fruit, such as baked apple or applesauce, should be given once a day after the child is 18 months old; and it should at first be strained. Stale raw fruits are especially dangerous in the cities and everywhere in the summer.

Town Improvement

Location of Industries.

(Contributed)

Do we want more industries, more people, more wealth in this city? If so, here are a few vital points to consider.

The live town is always on the lookout to add another industry to its list.

Industries make work, and work attracts workers, and of workers the town is built.

A manufacturing plant added to your town means a positive addition to the earning capacity of every citizen of the town. So that, in encouraging new industries you are not only patriotically aiding your own fortunes.

We have seen a few so-called business men who were satisfied with the population of their community—didn't want any more people, didn't want any more trade, didn't want any more money.

Those men were dead and didn't know it—but the community did know it.

The town that makes a determined effort to attract men and industries will get them. Its facilities may be limited; its wealth may not be great; its situation may even not be advantageous. But a Live Public Spirit—an appreciation of every added asset—is the feature that most attracts the intelligent business man who is seeking a location.

No manufacturer wants to conduct a business in a dead town. It matters not that the town may not use a dollar's worth of his goods. The very atmosphere of the dead town is like a wetblanket on his business.

The town with pep, with ginger, with hustle injects the same qualities into every business within its environs. Shrewd business men know this, and hunt for just such towns.

If we would grow as a town we must show that we want growth, and we must offer inducements.

For instance—

We want to land a manufacturer.

ing plant. We go after it. The managers stipulate for a convenient sited donated. We donate it. We secure the plant.

Now, did the donation of the site secure that plant? It did not. That was the smallest consideration. The spirit that prompted the donation was the magnet that did the pulling. The managers of the enterprise wanted to locate in a community where that spirit ruled. They could afford to pay for a site, but there was no way of determining whether the community really wanted their enterprise located in its midst.

And thus it goes on and on.

It is not the bonus, or the site, or even the exemption from taxes that is the real drawing power in locating new enterprises that are to aid in building up and developing our community.

It is the spirit behind these actions. It is the broad and just view taken by the citizens of the community—a view that recognizes the value of the enterprise sought, that concedes its usefulness as a factor in the community.

We are all human. We like to be appreciated at what we feel and know to be our real worth. Even the hardest headed business man among us is susceptible to a just appreciation of his worth to the community.

So when we show to industry that we want it; when we say to it, by our words and our actions, that we appreciate it and value it at its true worth, then it is that industry conceives a desire to be among us and of us.

Our town will be as big as our genuine ambition. It will be as progressive as we are. And the spirit of the population we attract will be of the same kind as our own spirit. You never find a live person under a slab in a grave yard. And towns are but collections of people and enterprises from which those people live.

What are we?

MAY RAISE PRICE OF ICE

President of Association Sees no Other Way in View.

(By United Press.)

Shelbyville, Ind., March 6.—Ice dealers of the state will be unable to avoid raising their prices this summer, according to the opinion of Herbert DePrez, President of the Indiana Ice Dealers association. "The ice manufacturer is paying 175 per cent more for his coal; 50 to 200 per cent more his piping and materials that go into the repair and maintenance of freezing apparatus and 50 to 100 per cent more for labor," said Mr. DePrez. "Also there is a great increase in the cost of feed. There is no way I can see that the ice manufacturer can avoid an increase in prices." He would not predict the amount of the raise.

WHAT-YOU-MAY COLUMN

Square Meals.

When we were a bachelor we thought a square meal was something to eat.

But since we are married we have discovered that food has nothing to do with it.

It's the color scheme that counts. A man gets awful tired of pink food, even if it does match the blue china.

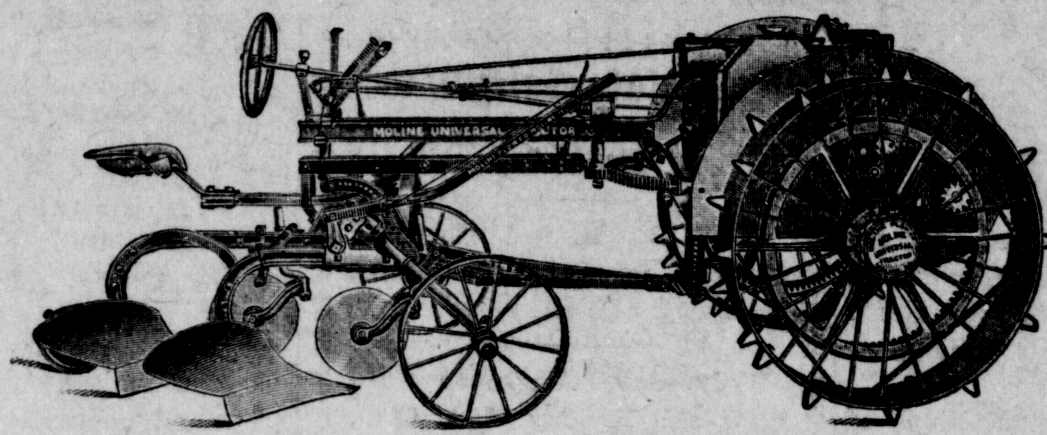

Must one call in a decorator to get a change of diet?

Or is there some other way out?

TODAY'S HOOSIER ODDITY

Indianapolis, Ind., March 6.—Hoosiers, meet Miss Julia Landers. Miss Landers is the first Indiana woman to serve as an election board official. She served today as an election sheriff in the Second precinct of the Eighth ward. Although women haven't the right to vote, Bloor-Schleppey, democratic committeeman, decided that as they will vote at the city election next fall, they could be appointed officials at the primary under the law.

Moline Universal A Practical Tractor for All Field Work A Proven Success

Plowing is the slowest and most important work on the farm. Therefore, a tractor to be satisfactory must be able to fulfill plowing requirements. The Moline-Universal Tractor will plow from 4 to 12 acres a day. This is more than enough for the average size farm.

If the Moline-Universal were large enough to pull three or four plow bottoms, it would be too large for other field work, such as cultivating, mowing, etc., and for work in small fields. It would have to be heavy and cumbersome, thus packing the soil and decreasing the yield of the crop as the heavy tractors do. It would also cost too much to operate.

For plowing, one wheel is run in the furrow, which makes the tractor practically self-steering and leaves only 1400 pounds of weight traveling on the surface of the unplowed land. The wheel in the furrow insures an even width for the front furrow.

The body of the tractor stands level with one wheel in the furrow. To accomplish this the left drive wheel is moved up on the frame through a slot and is locked by two bolts. A truss bar between the bull pinion and the axle holds the wheel true to the pinion in either position. One man can easily and quickly raise or lower the wheel.

Moline-Universal Power-Lift Plow

No standard horse-drawn plow is heavy enough to withstand the enormous strain when pulled by a powerful tractor. If the plow does poor work the whole outfit is not satisfactory.

As much consideration has been given to the design and construction of the Moline-Universal Plow as has been given to the tractor itself. The lift of the plow, the placing of the depth levers within easy reach of the operator, the power lift, the arrangement to prevent trash from choking or clogging the face of the furrow and the land wheel, and every other vital point for successful plowing have been carefully designed and thoroughly tested.

One of the most important features of the Moline-Universal Plow is its ability to back in the furrow or at the end of the field. This feature makes plowing with the Moline-Universal Tractor strictly a one-man operating proposition at all times.

Furnished with steel bottoms or chilled bases to suit any soil conditions.

Ample Clearance for Cultivating

The fact that the Moline-Universal Tractor can be used for cultivating as well as other field work, puts it in a class by itself. It has 31 inches vertical clearance. The ordinary cultivator has only from 29 to 30 inches arch clearance.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

A large crowd attended the open meeting of the Ladies Musicales held in the auditorium of the Graham Annex last evening when an oriental program in several parts was presented. The opening numbers were either by Russian composers or Russian in sentiment. Mrs. Parke and Ernest Parke played a piano duet, "Marche Slave," by Tschai-kowsky, followed by a solo by Mrs. Will Amos. Mr. Parke played a violin solo, "Slavonic Fantasie," by Dvorak-Kreisler, in which he was accompanied by his mother. It was an excellent rendition and he was so heartily encoered that he played "Tambourin Chinois" by Kreisler. A group of gypsy readings were then given by Miss Frances Frazee dressed in gypsy costume.

A group of eight young people sang and played on their stringed instruments three Hawaiian numbers which were so well done that they were encoered repeatedly. A girl's quartette sang with them. For the presentation of the operetta, the stage was beautifully decorated to represent a Japanese garden with flower beds, hanging baskets, and Japanese lanterns. Miss Mary Louise Bliss represented the part of the Laurel and Miss Edith Buell sang the part of the Rose. They were supported by a chorus of eight voices, each of the girls being in a beautiful Japanese costume. The operetta included a number of beautiful choruses which were sung and enacted. Mrs. Parke acted as accompanist.

The entire program was in charge of a committee of the Musicales composed of Miss Clorenne Amos and Mrs. E. I. Wooden.

Amusements

The story is a baffling mystery until the very last and then the mystery ends. Harold Lockwood and May Allison appear in "The Masked Rider" tomorrow and on Thursday will be the first appearance of what is heralded as the greatest of all serials, "Patria." The famous actress and dancer, Mrs. Vernon Castle, has the leading part.

The Lyric offers the five act feature "The Idol of the Stage" for the program tonight. Malcolm Williams is featured and it is said to be a thrilling drama full of human interest. There are many big scenes. Tomorrow the next chapter of "Pearl of the Army" will be shown.

THEY WERE RUNDOWN

How often we hear it said of a man or woman that "they were rundown in health" which accounts for their present sickness. For that reason it is important that when you find you tire easily, when your nerves are troublesome or your work is irksome, you should strengthen your system immediately with the blood-enriching, tissue-building food in Scott's Emulsion which contains pure Norwegian cod liver oil and is free from alcohol.

GIRLS IN ALSACE WELCOME FRENCH

Years Ago They Dreamed of Time Province Would be Redeemed From Germans.

MARRIAGES TAKE PLACE

Communion Veils Laid Away Are Brought Out For the Occasion—Priests Follow Army.

BY HENRY WOOD.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

With the French Armies, Thann, Alsace, Feb. 3.—(By Mail)—Just about the happiest girls in the world today are the girls of Alsace, who, years ago, following their first communion secretly hid away their white communion veils to be worn again in welcoming the French troops back to Alsace—should that happy event ever come.

Today, these girls in that portion of Alsace which has been reoccupied by the French, are supremely happy, because they are girls whose dreams have come true.

Some of the younger ones had only a few years in which to dream and to wait, but amongst the long lines of white robed and white veiled girls and women, who welcomed the French troops on their arrival at Thann in August, 1914, there were some who had cherished their communion veils for over forty years.

And now that this happy dream has come true, the white communion veils are again being laid away for another happy dream that promises not to be so long in coming. This is the marriage between Alsacian girls and the French soldiers who have redeemed their province for France, and already in the town of Thann alone four of these marriages have taken place, when white veils, worn at the first communion, then to welcome the French soldiers back to Alsace, were finally worn for the third and last time at the marriage ceremony which symbolized anew the union of France and Alsace.

The brides in these happy events had the additional pleasure of having the civil marriage ceremony performed by a gallant French Captain, who having lost his right arm in the fighting to redeem Thann, now serves as the French military mayor, whilst the religious ceremony was performed by French priests who came in the wake of the French army.

PRIMARY HOLDS INTEREST TODAY

Warm Contests Mark Campaign in Several Cities—State Watches Indianapolis.

EXPECT RESULT TO BE CLOSE

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 6.—Primary elections were being held in the majority of Indiana cities today. The fight in many places was unusually warm and close contest are expected. This will be the last Indiana election which will be held for men exclusively. On the next day the polls are open—probably when the delegates to the constitution convention are elected in the autumn, women will cast their ballots with the men.

In Indianapolis interest centered in the race between Charles W. Jewett and Lew Shank, republican aspirants for the job of leading their party at the autumn election. Both have made strong campaigns and the vote will undoubtedly be close.

Considerable interest was evidenced in many parts of the state in the primary at Newcastle where there is an exceptionally hot fight in the republican ranks.

George A. Elliott, publisher of the Newcastle Courier is being backed by many of the leading business men of the city. J. Leb Watkins, present mayor and Bert Evans are also running.

EUROPE TO BE SET RIGHT ON U. S. POSITION

President Wilson Instructs That Copies of His Inaugural be Sent to Foreign Powers

ARMED NEUTRALITY BILL

Another One is Introduced by Senator Lodge but Marshall Rules it is Out of Order

'WILFUL GROUP' MAKES REPLY

Senators Who Opposed Resolution to Give Wilson More Power Deny They Were Filibustering

(By United Press.)
Washington, March 6.—"To set Europe right" on the position of the United States in the international situation, today president Wilson has instructed that copies of his inaugural address be brought to the attention of all foreign government as "information."

Some of the "little group of wilful men" who prevented 77 United States senators from voting President Wilson the power he asked to protect American lives and property at sea took up most of the first hour and thirty minutes of the senate's time when it convened today.

Those who spoke today denied they participated in a filibuster. They said they "merely insisted on their constitutional rights to discuss any question before the senate."

Senator Lodge, republican, this afternoon introduced an armed neutrality bill in the senate. Senator Owen moved that the introduction of the bill was not in order. Owen held that the senate foreign relations committee to which the bill was to be referred had died with the sixty-fourth congress Sunday.

Vice-President Marshall in the chair sustained Senator Owen. Senator Thomas then declared that inasmuch as congress was not in session Senator Lodge's bill was not in order. The chair sustained Thomas.

No legal opinion had been received by President Wilson regarding his right to arm merchantmen without the consent of congress.

While the arming of merchantmen is the step most considered, it is pointed out that the president has the right to convoy American vessels. This course has been opposed by the navy department, however, principally for strategic reasons.

Another step suggested is that the shipping board take over American merchantmen, arm them as naval auxiliaries and send them abroad.

The president has been inclined to believe that certain old statutes still in force might prevent him from supplying guns to merchantmen, but some of his advisers hold that a broader and truer interpretation of these laws will show that they have no application to the present situation.

PLOT AGAINST INDIA, CHARGE

Hindu Magician and German are Placed Under Arrest in New York

(By United Press.)
New York, March 6.—Dr. Chander Chakrabarty, a Hindu magician, and Dr. Ernest Seckmuer, a German, are under arrest at New York police headquarters charged with starting a military expedition against a friendly nation.

The two admitted that they had received $60,000 from Wolf Von Igel, alleged German plotter.

The object of the plot, according to police, was to start a revolution in India.

WINTER IS ROUTED TODAY

Benificent Sun Melts Snow and Brings Mercury Up Fast.

A benificent sun was putting winter to rout today and indicated a return of springlike weather tonight and tomorrow. The temperature mounted fast during the middle of the day and this afternoon the rout of winter seemed complete. The mercury rose to forty-five above zero, the sky was clear and the heavy snow of Sunday disappeared fast. Although a raw, March wind blew, the day was pleasant compared with Sunday. Rain and warmer weather is predicted for tonight and tomorrow.

TO GIVE ART LECTURES AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

Miss Bessie Snow of New York City Will Speak Twice Tomorrow—Open to Public at Night

ITS VALUE TO BE EMPHASIZED

The high school is thought unusually fortunate to obtain Miss Bessie Snow of New York City for two lectures on art to be delivered tomorrow afternoon and evening. The lecture in the evening is open to the public and will be given in the assembly room of the Graham high school. All those who are interested in art, its industrial and practical value, are urged to attend and hear Miss Snow. The lectures are particularly interesting to the high school students at this time, as a set of books on industrial art education has been recently added to the school library.

In connection with her talks, Miss Snow will have an exhibit of some of the work done in schools, showing what can be done by students in a practical and beneficial way through the study of art. Her suggestions include decorative schemes, designing clothing and many phases of industrial art. In the afternoon, Miss Snow will speak to the teachers of the lower grades at 3 o'clock, and in the evening the lecture will take the place of an institute lecture. Miss Snow is only stopping at six cities in Indiana. She comes here from Connorsville and she has also spoken in Anderson and Richmond.

Supreme Court Decides Steamer Captured by German Raider Belongs to British Company

NEUTRAL RIGHTS VIOLATED

Washington, March 6.—Lieutenant Hans Burg's heroic trip across the Atlantic with the British steamer Appam, captured by the German raider Moewe proved futile today when the supreme court awarded the vessel to her British owners.

Justice Day held the Appam's use of a United States port when she could have touched at a European neutral port and saved 3,000 miles of its journey was a clear violation of the neutral rights of the United States.

The courts of the United States, he said, can not be used by belligerents as arbitrators.

VOTE NOT LIKELY OVER 50 PERCENT

Indications Not More Than Half Ballots Cast in 1913 Would be Voted in Primary

NOT MUCH INTEREST SHOWN

Republican Race for Mayor and Democratic and Republican Races for Clerk Hold Attention

There was every indication this afternoon that Rushville would not cast much more than fifty per cent of the vote of the last city election in its first city primary held today.

Returns from all the precincts about one o'clock indicated this. The voting was very slow. For example, at nine o'clock this morning only thirty-eight votes had been cast in the first precinct, and in that precinct on November 4, 1913 a total of 199 votes were cast for the three candidates for mayor. This same ratio was practically obtained in all six precincts.

Interest centered for the most part on the democratic race for city clerk and the republican races for mayor and clerk. The democrats had no race for any office but clerk, whereas there were contests for every nomination on the republican ticket except councilman-at-large.

In precinct No. 1, which voted at the Catholic school, only sixty-five votes had been cast at noon. There were 199 votes in that precinct in the last city election.

In precinct No. 2, which voted at the court house assembly room, at noon 117 votes had been voted at one o'clock. The poll books showed 141 republicans and 83 democrats; but only 204 votes were cast in that precinct in 1913.

In the third precinct sixty-eight votes had been cast at one o'clock. There were 198 votes in that precinct at the last city election. The voting place was in J. Q. Thomas' office in Second street.

In the fourth precinct, which voted at John A. Spurrier's piano store, seventy-four ballots had been voted at one o'clock. There were 211 votes in that precinct in 1913.

In the fifth precinct, which voted at the Ford residence at the corner of Sexton and Fourth street, 210 votes had been cast early this afternoon. That is the biggest precinct in the city. In the last city election 476 votes were cast there.

In the sixth precinct, voting at A. B. Irvin's garage, 68 votes had been cast about 1:30 o'clock. There were 199 ballots cast in that precinct in last city election.

It appeared that the race for the republican nomination for mayor lay between the present incumbent, Clata L. Bebout, and A. B. Irvin. There wasn't much doubt but that one of them would be the nominee as it was not thought Harley Frazier had a chance.

No one would scarcely venture a guess on the city clerk's race. It was a pretty one for either party. Although there were some republicans who thought the nominee would be either Earl Osborne or Walter Easley, still others felt that Albert J. Sweet had a chance.

Five candidates sought the democratic nomination for the same office. It was about as uncertain as the republican contest. The candidates were Wilbur W. Stevens, Charles G. Newkirk, Sam Morgan, Osro Farthing and Frederick Boxley.

The race for the republican nomination for treasurer was thought to be a stand-off between George Helm and Fred Gale. Knowles Casady was unopposed for the nomination for the same office.

John D. Megee had everything his own way in the democratic mayoralty race, being unopposed. John Crowley and Walter R. Thomas were democratic candidates for council.

OFFER SERVICES IN CASE OF WAR

Members of Women's Council Pledge Themselves to Aid by Affiliating With Red Cross Society

WILL CO-OPERATE LOCALLY

Also Offer Assistance to City Council in Making "Clean-up" Week a Success This Spring

As an expression of their patriotism, the members of the Women's council representing the women's organizations of the city have sent a pledge to the American Red Cross society showing that, in case of war, they are willing to do any war relief work possible in their homes. Nothing will be done, of course, by the council unless the country goes to war, and in that case the women have pledged themselves to do anything asked by the Red Cross society and to co-operate with other organizations in the county doing similar work. This was decided at the meeting held in the directors room of the Rushville National Bank last evening.

A copy of the pledge has been sent to the Bureau of Nursing of the Red Cross society and another copy kept on record. It reads as follows:

"Pursuant to the call for women volunteers for war relief work from the Bureau of Nursing Service of the American Red Cross Society, the Women's Council of Rushville, Indiana, a body of 27 women, composed of one delegate from each women's organization of the city of Rushville, offers its services to its country. The council resolves itself into a body of lay women for war relief work to be done at home subject to the instruction from the National Bureau of Nursing and as such body agrees to co-operate and affiliate with any or all organizations pledged to such work in Rush county."

Similar action has been taken by a number of women's organizations in the country.

The members of the council also decided to offer their services to the city council for any assistance they might give the council in the annual "Clean-up" week. The movement is forwarded by the city council and the women are anxious to co-operate in making it a success.

The Flower Show which is to be conducted by the Women's Council has already created an interest among the school children. The seeds and bulbs have already been distributed at a nominal sum, and the prizes are offered as an inducement for the children to beautify their yards by means of flowers and gardens. The flower show will probably be held about Chautauqua time, which is the time set previously for similar shows. This year, however, it is to be more extensive than previously. In order to deal with the children fairly, the city is to be divided into districts, probably four, and the same prizes offered for each species of flowers in each district.

The division of the districts, the means of procuring money for the prizes, and the time of the flower show are all left to the committee appointed last evening by the vice-president, Mrs. Stewart. The committee is composed of Mrs. R. C. Hargrove, chairman, Miss Marjorie Smith, Miss Belle Gregg, Mrs. John Cooning, Miss Alma Green, Mrs. Robert Innis, Mrs. Jane Kincaid, Mrs. Dan Matlock, Mrs. Lewis Sexton, Mrs. Bert Trabue, Mrs. C. J. Tucker and Mrs. Selman Webb.

In response to a request from Miss Straight, the visiting nurse, $25 a month was allowed for transportation money, aside from her salary of $85 a month. This money is allowed in order that Miss Straight may reach the distant districts of the city more quickly, that she may

A large crowd attended the county meeting of the Knights of Pythias lodge at Castle hall here last night. There was an enthusiastic delegation from Milroy where the other lodge besides Ivy lodge is situated. Eight candidates, two from Milroy and six from Ivy lodge, were given the third rank. On account of the time required for the degree work, the program of speeches had to be cut short and Judge Will M. Sparks spoke only briefly. Cigars were provided.

CAN'T GIVE UP RIGHT TO SINK ENEMY BOATS

Austria, However, Does Not Include Neutral Merchant Ships in This Class, Note Declares

DESIRE TO AVOID BREAK SEEN

(By United Press.)
Washington, March 6.—"Austria can not give up her rights to sink enemy merchantmen," she declares in her reply to the American inquiry regarding her stand on Germany's unlimited submarine orders received at the state department.

Austria does not, however, include neutral merchant ships under this rank. Authorities believe that she has stretched a point in order to meet the American effort to avoid a break. Her word, officials said, indicated a desire on Austria's part to avoid a break with the United States even though she supports the theory of Germany's unlimited submarine warfare.

Authorities feel that in view of Austria's efforts to prevent a break it would be advisable at this time to await developments to see if she carries out submarine warfare against vessels other than enemy merchantmen.

Austria's reply is far less conclusive than her original note sent shortly after Germany's barred zone degree and in which she upheld strongly the German intention.

JUNK SALE REDUCES COST OF THE ROOF

Net Figure is $18,123.09 for Repair of Court House, it is Found When Last Payment is Made

COPPER AND IRON, $794.99

The new roof on the court house cost the sum of $18,123.09 after the county had sold as junk the old copper and iron. Final settlement for the roof was made yesterday by the commissioners when Geers and Behringer of Richmond, the contractors received the last sum due on the roof.

The roof cost the gross sum of $18,918.08. The commissioners sold the copper and old iron for $794.99, making the roof cost the net sum of $18,123.09. The commissioners believe the sum well spent as the roof is the best that could be obtained and is put on so as to last for years.

The contract price for the roof was $12,000. This did not include the roof on the tower, which was put on extra, bringing the total cost to a figure in excess of the contract price.

HIGHWAY BILL IS FINALLY APPROVED

Amended at Last Moment to Provide Commissioners May Let Contracts Under Supervision.

SUNDAY MOVIE BILL PASSES

Commission is Provided, Expenses to be Paid by a Tax Levied on Show Owners.

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., March 6.—The much-demanded highway commission bill was passed by both houses of the general assembly early this morning by adoption of the conference committee's report. The principal amendment is that by which the county commissioners are empowered to let contracts for roads under the direction of the state highway engineer and unless the commissioners and engineers agree on contracts within five days the matter is taken out of their hands by the state highway commission. An appropriation of $100,000 for the first year and $500,000 for the second year is provided.

The McCray Sunday moving picture bill was amended by a conference committee consisting of Senators McCray and Culbertson and Representatives Myers and Geddes. The committee redrafted the House amendment providing for a board of censors, providing that the board shall have power to prohibit "immoral, indecent or licentious" pictures. To defray the commission's expenses a special license fee on all motion picture theaters is established according to class of cities and towns as follows: First-class cities $25 annually; second class, $20; third class, $15; fourth class, $10; fifth class, including theaters in towns and rural districts, $5. Three members of the commission, to be appointed by the Governor, will receive $1,000 each annually, and provision is made for a secretary at $900 a year. Any residue from the annual collections of the commission will go into the general fund. The amendment provides that exhibitors refusing to obey the decisions of the commission on objectionable films shall be subject to a fine of $25 a day for such refusal, and the commission may revoke their licenses. Both houses accepted the conference amendment. The bill was transmitted to the senate yesterday, after passage in the house Saturday, Speaker Eisebach having made sure that Representative Bayer, a democrat, cast his vote in favor of the bill. A question arose Saturday evening as to how Bayer voted. Without his vote the bill would not have had a constitutional majority.

The senate killed the McClaskey bill for the collection of automobile license fees in counties, instead of by the secretary of state. Senator Hirsch, democrat, led the fight against the measure, saying the legislature has killed the same measure three times in previous sessions, and that it should maintain its record. The vote was 22 to 20. The Bartel bill, authorizing cities to institute the commission form of government where they so desire, was killed, 20 to 24.

The oil inspection bill, an administration measure in the interest of efficiency and economy, suffered from a democratic ax in the closing hours. The bill was killed on a motion to indefinitely postpone, made by Senator VanAnken, democrat, and the final vote was 25 in favor of indefinitely postponing the measure and 21 in favor of its passage.

As it now stands the office of reporter of the supreme court will not be abolished, as the oil inspection bill was a rider on the former measure. The bill abolishing the office of reporter was passed by the senate, and when it went to the house the rider abolishing the oil inspection was attached to it. Consistent to the last democratic

FARM LABORERS ARE LIKELY TO GET MORE

MORE POTATOES TO BE GROWN

The combination of the highest prices offered for farm products the world has known in many generations and of the scarcity of farm laborers is expected to result in an increase in wages of farm hands, according to local farmers who are now having difficulty in employing help, understood to be willing to do farm work. The wages being offered are understood to be from $20 a month and up. This, of course, includes board, room and washing. One instance is known of a married man who was offered $1.25 a day the year around, a house to live in, a cow, his meat and the chance to raise all of his garden stuff.

Farmers are planning to raise more of the crops for which the higher prices now are paid, such as potatoes, beans and the like. With potatoes, close to $4 a bushel and beans beyond the $7 a bushel mark, indications point to high prices obtaining for both next year, which will make them profitable crops even though large yields are not obtained. The raising of such crops on a large scale will mean the employment of more farm labor than is required for wheat, corn and like cereal crops.

men-at-large. James C. Clore had no opposition in the second ward on the democratic ticket, but Walter E. Clarkson and Theodore M. Edwards both sought the nomination on the democratic ticket from the third ward.

R. F. Seudder was a candidate for renomination as councilman-at-large on the republican ticket. Chase Mauzy, present councilman-at-large, who was appointed to fill a vacancy, was the other candidate for republican nomination.

Frank Abercrombie and Clair F. Johnson were after the republican nomination for councilman in the first ward; Homer W. Cole and Edward A. Lee in the second ward, and Albert P. Wagoner and Clay Benedict in the third ward.

accomplish more and better work. The extent of her work practically demanded the allowance.

A great deal of interest is being manifested in the sewing school which is to be started, offering free instruction to those wishing to learn to sew. The previous sewing school conducted by Mrs. Nelle Betker was such a success that added interest is connected with the new one. The school would have been dismissed during the summer months and for that reason it has been decided to postpone the starting of it until early fall, for it would have been dismissed for this season shortly after the organization.

There was an excellent attendance at the meeting last evening. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. A. L. Stewart, vice-president. The council will meet again Monday evening, April 2.

Mrs. Mary Ralston is quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Logan of New Salem.

"I Feel Better Since Taking Tanlac Than for Months," Says F. G. Argenta.

Michigan City, Ind., March 5.—"I feel better since taking this new medicine, Tanlac," than I've felt for months," F. G. Argenta, proprietor of the Royal Cigar Company, who lives at 808 West Ninth street, this city, said on December 16. Mr. Argenta is one of this city's best known business men.

"For a number of months I have suffered from stomach trouble," he continued. "I had no desire for food and what little I did eat didn't agree with me. I was in a constipated condition usually. It was necessary for me to use laxatives nearly all the time. Gas often accumulated in my stomach and sometimes it made me sick. My kidneys also were out of order. Severe pains in my back bothered me.

"I've taken two bottles of Tanlac now and my condition is much improved. I eat my meals regularly now and enjoy my food. What I eat is digested properly, too. I'm never bothered with constipation now. I seem to be gaining strength every day.

"Yes, I feel better now than for months and I want to recommend Tanlac to others."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints and the like and is a fine reconstructive tonic having proved excellent in countless cases for building up the system and relieving the after effects of influenza, pneumonia, or a severe cold.

Tanlac is now being specially introduced and explained in Rushville at P. E. Wolcott's Drug Store; in Arlington at Mrs. L. T. Davis's; in Carthage at J. H. McCarthy and Sons and in Milroy at Barton's and Sheppards.—(Adv.)

Beef Compared with Floorcoverings

The fact that all good rugs are made of wool does not mean that they are all alike. A cow may be all beef, but it's equally true that all beef is not sirloin. When you want a good steak you must designate the cut and when you want a rug or carpet you must do the same thing. There is just as much difference between Whittall Rugs and Carpets and the average as there is between sirloin and beef bone.

Body Brussels Rugs, representing the very highest type of this kind of a rug that can be produced. A most desirable rug in a great many places, handsome patterns, rich colorings, satisfying every requirement. Prices are moderate, quality considered.

A Peerless Rug will satisfy the most critical taste, and as the name implies is of unequalled excellence. Strictly all worsted, a Brussels fabric but slightly different from the Chlidema. Will give efficient service, has luxurious and rich effects.

These rugs are the very finest produced in this country, the yarns and dyes being of foreign importation. Connoisseurs ever on the alert for choice rugs, will tell you that Whittall Anglo-Persian Rugs are without duplication, both in design and coloring.

Whittall Rugs are sold at standard prices.... We show Anglo Persians, Anglo Indias, Teprac, Chlidemas and Peerless Rugs in all sizes. The Anglo Persian is given up to be the best Domestic Rug made. They are the closest woven, finest texture worsted Wiltons. Others may cost a little less, but each Whittall Rug at its price is the best rug you can possibly get for the money expended.

senators joined again yesterday afternoon to defeat another administration measure when the Kuhlman bill, requiring state officials to turn over fees to the state treasury within sixty days after their collection, was killed by a vote of 22 to 23. The measure got before the senate in an orderly way, it being among a mass of other bills that were called up for third reading at the afternoon session.

Through an agreement between majority and minority members of the house, belated action on several bills was speeded up in the house at the night session by "bunching" bills on third reading. This matter came through the approval of a motion to authorize the speaker to appoint a joint committee of six members to examine all the bills on third reading and combine them in bunches of from two to four. Each bill was read and action taken on each bunch of bills was taken at one roll call. Objection of any member being considered in connection with any other bill, was sufficient to halt action. Representatives McNagney, Durham, Walker, Miltenberger, Mendenhall and Dilworth were appointed to pass on the work of bunching the bills.

The Wiking Workers class of the First Baptist church will give a box social in the basement of the church tomorrow evening. The girls are requested to bring boxes.

To Fight Old H. C. L.
The Indiana Retail Shoe Dealers' association is to be commended for its announced intention to fight the high cost of shoes. Raymond D. Brown, president of the association, says the members will discuss conditions of the market and ways and means of stopping the rapid increase in the price of leather products that the pocketbook of the wage earner, which is already overtaxed by the high cost of living, may be able to spare moderate sums for comfortable and good footwear. "Everyone knows by this time," Mr. Brown said, "that the demand for leather brought on by the European war has created an unusual scarcity in this country, but few men realize to what extent the shoe industry has tried to offset the burden of increased cost by finding substitutes for leather that are just as attractive and wearable. "As these products mean a money-saving without lessening the wearing quality of the shoe, it is the duty of the shoe man to the public to encourage their use. If this is done the shoe retailers will find the public back of them in their attempts to care for shoe costs in a sane and sensible manner.

"Misleading statements have been made frequently to the effect that shoes will soon cost $20 a pair. These statements are misleading. There always will be and always have been some fancy shoes retailing at such prices, but the prices of good quality, everyday footwear are going to be kept in reasonable bounds say $4 to $10 for a good wearing and appearing man's or woman's shoe. Investigation will show that shoe retailers have not taken advantage of the public to make exorbitant profits as a result of market conditions, but if the facts were known, it would be easy to determine that the entire industry has been devoting strenuous efforts to the task of producing good shoes that will be in reach of the masses of our population."

North and South Joined.
An excellent example of how the North and the South have been solidified in a half century is found in the patriotic outburst of Representative Stedman of North Carolina, a confederate veteran, during debate in congress on the armed neutrality bill. "The house ought to send a message to all nations," he said, "that it will protect its rights, the lives of its people and the American flag in its pristine splendor, wherever it may float over land or sea." The "rebel" yell resounded throughout the chamber as he concluded, the dispatch stated. Some of the Northern representatives and Senators can find in the one-time confederate soldier an example they could well emulate.

Pity the women of Germany! The imperial clothing committee has issued a warning that styles in women's clothing can not be allowed to change every six months. The committee says women may wear winter dresses throughout the coming summer and winter without disgrace and drastic measures will be taken against a change in fashion and consequent expense. Better might they be sent to the trenches and suffer a less painful death!

The Wayne county assessor has decided that potatoes shall be assessed at three dollars a bushel. That seems equitable enough but who's going to keep any spuds in the cellar when they can be converted into non-taxable road bonds any time?

DID YOU EVER SEE A CAT STRIKE?

Sleepy old cat lying by a rat hole. Lazy, half asleep—then biff! Say, if you could strike as quick and hard as that you could make Jess Willard look sick! Why don't you let your tired body muscles sleep until the right moment—and then—biff! It's all in being able to relax. One of the greatest aids ever given to man for soothing tired muscles, overworked muscles, is Speedway Liniment. It goes right in through the skin and relieves those sore, overworked ligaments. It's soothing—restful—and wonderfully upbuilding. Trouble with most people is that there are too many little biffs, little throbs, little aches that we don't take care of and soon the muscles lose their pep and comeback. Try Speedway Liniment. Put it on full strength with a good brisk rub. It does not blister—nor stain—nor injure the most delicate fabric. Pleasant to use as toilet water. Relieves neuralgia, rheumatism, sprains, bruises, soreness anywhere. In 25c, 50c and $1.00 sizes at Hargrove & Mullin and F. B. Johnson & Co. Just try it—(Adv.)

MUCH DEPENDS ON BARRY'S ABILITY
Whether Red Sox Repeat This Year is Largely up to the New Manager
SAME TEAM AS LAST YEAR
Infield to Present Same Faces But Outfield May Witness One Change

Boston, March 5.—Whether Boston can repeat its American league championship again this year depends, it is admitted, upon whether Jack Barry, new manager of the world's champions, can drive his men to the same speed attained by Bill Carrigan.

Jack started south today with his first string men. Battery men and newspapermen were in the party that climbed aboard a train here for Hot Springs, Ark., where the team again will condition itself.

Charles Wagner, Joseph Devine, Forest Cady, and battery men not in Boston will join the train enroute.

The Red Sox present the same solid front this year as a year ago. The battery men appear, if anything, to be slightly stronger than when they took the championship, and if that's the case little more could be expected.

Babe Ruth, southpaw star, should be better this year. He has had more experience. Wyckoff and Penneck, two hurlers who have been a long time arriving, are expected to show at their best this year. Joe Wood's arm, on his own declaration, is ready for another long season. George Foster says he has recovered his cunning and will accompany the first party to Hot Springs. Dutch Leonard, Ernest Shore and Carl Mays are expected to be just as good as ever.

The outfield probably will be composed of the veterans Lewis and Hooper, with Clarence Walker and Chick Shorten alternating in the middle garden against right and left-hand pitching. This is an outfield which stands out as one of the best in the game, combining fielding with hitting power.

There is nothing uncertain about the infield. Dick Hoblitzel and Del Gainer are available for first base duty. Manager Jack will be at second. Everett Scott at shortstop and Larry Gardner at third base. There will be no deviation from this unless Harold Janvrin is played for a time at second in order to give Barry a chance for rest.

The infield defense of the Red Sox is only slightly less efficient than the remarkable pitching staff which has lifted the Sox into two world's championships in as many years. It is a defense which tightens with such a visible force that it is almost impossible for an opposing team to send a winning run over in a close game. The presence of Jack Barry, balancing every cog, the coolness of the veteran Gardner, has balanced this club as no other in the country.

The Red Sox and the Dodgers will open a series of spring exhibition games when they appear March 28 in Memphis. From there they will go to Little Rock for March 29; Oklahoma City, March 30; Kansas City, Mo., March 31 and April 1; Davenport, Iowa, April 2; Peoria, Ill., April 3; Indianapolis, April 4; Lafayette, Ind., April 5. The teams will separate at Lafayette, the Red Sox going to Toledo for a game April 7.

"SAVE THE BABIES."
These are authentic quotations from the pamphlet on babies by Dr. L. Emmett Holt of Columbia University and Dr. Henry L. K. Shaw of Union University.

Tea, coffee, cider, wine, beer, soda-water, and candy should never be given to a young child. The juice of fresh fruits may be given after 12 months. Cooked fruit, such as baked apple or applesauce, should be given once a day after the child is 18 months old; and it should at first be strained. Stale raw fruits are especially dangerous in the cities and everywhere in the summer.

NEW DISCOVERY FOR ECZEMA

Doctors Having Great Success with Amolox.

This remarkable letter, coming from a prominent physician engaged in active practice for over 25 years, proves the merit of this wonderful new remedy.

I have used Amolox in four different cases of chronic skin diseases, with excellent results. All showed marked improvement from the start. Two apparently are cured, the skin being free from scales and redness, and perfectly normal.

I consider Amolox a Remedy of rare merit. I know of nothing in the modern text-books that equals it in therapeutic value.

Very truly yours,
C. R. JUSTICE, M. D.,
Main Street, Poland, O.

Town Improvement

Location of Industries.

(Contributed)

Do we want more industries, more people, more wealth in this city? If so, here are a few vital points to consider.

The live town is always on the lookout to add another industry to its list.

Industries make work, and work attracts workers, and of workers the town is built.

A manufacturing plant added to your town means a positive addition to the earning capacity of every citizen of the town. So that, in encouraging new industries you are not only patriotically aiding your own fortunes.

We have seen a few so-called business men who were satisfied with the population of their community—didn't want any more people, didn't want any more trade, didn't want any more money.

Those men were dead and didn't know it—but the community did know it.

The town that makes a determined effort to attract men and industries will get them. Its facilities may be limited; its wealth may not be great; its situation may even not be advantageous. But a Live Public Spirit—an appreciation of every added asset—is the feature that most attracts the intelligent business man who is seeking a location.

No manufacturer wants to conduct a business in a dead town. It matters not that the town may not use a dollar's worth of his goods. The very atmosphere of the dead town is like a wet blanket on his business.

The town with pep, with ginger, with hustle injects the same qualities into every business within its environs. Shrewd business men know this, and hunt for just such towns.

If we would grow as a town we must show that we want growth, and we must offer inducements.

For instance—
We want to land a manufacturer-

ing plant. We go after it. The managers stipulate for a convenient sited donated. We donate it. We secure the plant.

Now, did the donation of the site secure that plant? It did not. That was the smallest consideration. The spirit that prompted the donation was the magnet that did the pulling. The managers of the enterprise wanted to locate in a community where that spirit ruled. They could afford to pay for a site, but there was no way of determining whether the community really wanted their enterprise located in its midst.

And thus it goes on and on.

It is not the bonus, or the site, or even the exemption from taxes that is the real drawing power in locating new enterprises that are to aid in building up and developing our community.

It is the spirit behind these actions. It is the broad and just view taken by the citizens of the community—a view that recognizes the value of the enterprise sought, that concedes its usefulness as a factor in the community.

We are all human. We like to be appreciated at what we feel and know to be our real worth. Even the hardest headed business man among us is susceptible to a just appreciation of his worth to the community.

So when we show to industry that we want it; when we say to it, by our words and our actions, that we appreciate it and value it at its true worth, then it is that industry conceives a desire to be among us and of us.

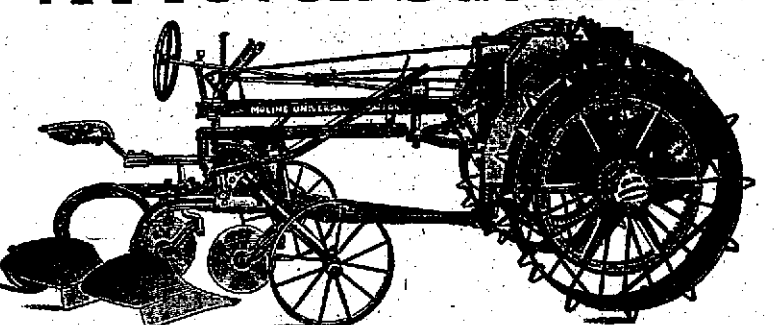

Our town will be as big as our genuine ambition. It will be as progressive as we are. And the spirit of the population we attract will be of the same kind as our own spirit.

You never find a live person under a slab in a grave yard. And towns are but collections of people and enterprises from which those people live.

What are we?

Moline Universal

A Practical Tractor for All Field Work A Proven Success

Plowing is the slowest and most important work on the farm. Therefore, a tractor to be satisfactory must be able to fulfill plowing requirements. The Moline-Universal Tractor will plow from 4 to 12 acres a day. This is more than enough for the average size farm.

If the Moline-Universal were large enough to pull three or four plow bottoms, it would be too large for other field work, such as cultivating, mowing, etc., and for work in small fields. It would have to be heavy and cumbersome, thus packing the soil and decreasing the yield of the crop as the heavy tractors do. It would also cost too much to operate.

For plowing, one wheel is run in the furrow, which makes the tractor practically self-steering and leaves only 1400 pounds of weight traveling on the surface of the unplowed land. The wheel in the furrow insures an even width for the front furrow.

The body of the tractor stands level with one wheel in the furrow. To accomplish this the left drive wheel is moved up on the frame through a slot and is locked by two bolts. A truss bar between the bull pinion and the axle holds the wheel true to the pinion in either position. One man can easily and quickly raise or lower the wheel.

Moline-Universal Power-Lift Plow

No standard horse-drawn plow is heavy enough to withstand the enormous strain when pulled by a powerful tractor. If the plow does poor work the whole outfit is not satisfactory.

As much consideration has been given to the design and construction of the Moline-Universal Plow as has been given to the tractor itself. The lift of the plow, the placing of the depth levers within easy reach of the operator, the power lift, the arrangement to prevent trash from choking or clogging the face of the furrow and the land wheel, and every other vital point for successful plowing have been carefully designed and thoroughly tested.

One of the most important features of the Moline-Universal Plow is its ability to back in the furrow or at the end of the field. This feature makes plowing with the Moline-Universal Tractor strictly a one-man operating proposition at all times.

Furnished with steel bottoms or chilled bases to suit any soil conditions.

Ample Clearance for Cultivating

The fact that the Moline-Universal Tractor can be used for cultivating as well as other field work, puts it in a class by itself. It has 31 inches vertical clearance. The ordinary cultivator has only from 29 to 30 inches arc clearance.

On exhibition at 731 N. Perkins St. For further information see

WALTER G. DUKE

The Moline-Universal is also open through the center, which gives the operator a clear view ahead.

No large amount of headland is required at the end of the field. The automatic governor allows the tractor to be slowed down to a "snail's pace" for turning at end of rows.

Stationary Belt Work

The Moline-Universal develops 10 to 12 horse power on the belt—ample to operate your stationary machinery.

It is equipped with a 6-inch face and 8-inch diameter pulley. This pulley is at the front of the machine, where it ought to be for the greatest convenience. The belt can be quickly put on and tightened by blocking the tractor wheels.

A Complete Power Plant

It will prepare the seed bed, sow the seed, cultivate and harvest the crop—do all the work from start to finish without the use of horses.

It is ready at the turn of the crank for any job and will go through with it in record time without a hitch.

The Moline-Universal is a high-powered, quality-built tractor that will pay for itself the first year on any good farm.

Advantages of the Two-Wheel Tractor

The Moline-Universal is of the two-wheel type. The front wheels are used for driving, and the implement attached forms the rear wheels. This makes a compact unit, easy to guide and handle, will back as easily as go forward, permits close work in small fields and short corners, and lifts itself out of dead furrows and ditches. This close-coupled feature alone makes the Moline-Universal superior to all other tractors.

Another very important feature of the Moline-Universal is that the implement at work is coupled close to the power plant, and the tractor is operated from the seat of the implement. This enables one man to operate the implement and observe its work. It also removes him from any possible vibration and heat of the engine.

Every ounce of weight on the Moline-Universal is placed on the driving wheels. This accounts for the great traction and drawbar pull and enables us to keep down the weight. On other types of tractors part of the weight is placed on the wheels which do no driving, and this extra weight is not available for traction, but must be moved as a dead load.

Therefore, it is easy to see why the Moline-Universal Tractor is so economical to operate, is such a strong, sturdy puller, light in weight, and easy to handle.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application of two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

A large crowd attended the open meeting of the Ladies Musicales held in the auditorium of the Graham Annex last evening when an oriental program in several parts was presented. The opening numbers were either by Russian composers or Russian in sentiment. Mrs. Parke and Ernest Parke played a piano duet, "Marche Slave," by Tschai-kowsky, followed by a solo by Mrs. Will Amos. Mr. Parke played a violin solo, "Slavonic Fantasia," by Dvorak-Kreisler, in which he was accompanied by his mother. It was an excellent rendition and he was so heartily encored that he played "Tambourin Chinois" by Kreisler. A group of gypsy readings were then given by Miss Frantes Frazee dressed in gypsy costume.

A group of eight young people sang and played on their stringed instruments three Hawaiian numbers which were so well done that they were encored repeatedly. A girl's quartette sang with them. For the presentation of the operetta, the stage was beautifully decorated to represent a Japanese garden with flower beds, hanging baskets, and Japanese lanterns. Miss Mary Louise Bliss represented the part of the Laurel and Miss Edith Buell sang the part of the Rose. They were supported by a chorus of eight voices, each of the girls being in a beautiful Japanese costume. The operetta included a number of beautiful choruses which were sung and enacted. Mrs. Parke acted as accompanist.

The entire program was in charge of a committee of the Musicales composed of Miss Clorenne Amos and Mrs. E. I. Wooden.

ORLA PRICE ASKS DIVORCE

Says Wife Would Not Live in Other Cities Where he Had Opportunities

Orla W. Price has filed suit for divorce from Mable Price, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. The complaint states they were married March 31, 1902 and separated May 29, 1916. It is alleged that she refused to live with him in cities where he would have work and insisted on living with her mother. The plaintiff claims that in 1916 he had a good position in Cleveland, Ohio, and that because his wife would not go there to live he was compelled to come to Rushville and accept employment at a greatly reduced salary. Young and Young represent the plaintiff.

Amusements

Patrons of the Princess theater will have an opportunity tonight to see a picture vastly different from the usual kind in "Manhattan Madness," in which Douglas Fairbanks and Jewel Carmen are starred. The story is a baffling mystery until the very last and then the mystery ends. Harold Lockwood and May Allison appear in "The Masked Rider" tomorrow and on Thursday will be the first appearance of what is heralded as the greatest of all serials, "Patria." The famous actress and dancer, Mrs. Vernon Castle, has the leading part.

The Lyric offers the five act feature "The Idol of the Stage" for the program tonight. Malcolm Williams is featured and it is said to be a thrilling drama full of human interest. There are many big scenes. Tomorrow the next chapter of "Pearl of the Army" will be shown.

THEY WERE RUNDOWN

How often we hear it said of a man or woman that "they were rundown in health" which accounts for their present sickness. For that reason it is important that when you find you tire easily, when your nerves are troublesome or your work is irksome, you should strengthen your system immediately with the blood-enriching, tissue-building food in Scott's Emulsion which contains pure Norwegian cod liver oil and is free from alcohol.

Clear, Peachy Skin Awaits Anyone Who Drinks Hot Water

Says an inside bath, before breakfast helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Sparkling, and vivacious, merry, bright, alert—a good, clear skin and a natural, rosy, healthy complexion are assured only by pure blood. If only every man and woman could be induced to adopt the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls, with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists, we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening, and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. Those subject to sick headaches, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds, and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store, which will cost but a trifle, but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance, awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

GIRLS IN ALSACE WELCOME FRENCH

Years Ago They Dreamed of Time
Province Would be Redeemed
From Germans.

MARRIAGES TAKE PLACE

Communion Veils Laid Away Are Brought Out For the Occasion —Priests Follow Army.

BY HENRY WOOD.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
With the French Armies, Thann, Alsace, Feb. 3.—(By Mail)—Just about the happiest girls in the world today are the girls of Alsace, who, years ago, following their first communion secretly hid away their white communion veils to be worn again in welcoming the French troops back to Alsace—should that happy event ever come.

Today, these girls in that portion of Alsace which has been reoccupied by the French, are supremely happy, because they are girls whose dreams have come true.

Some of the younger ones had only a few years in which to dream and to wait, but amongst the long lines of white robbed and white veiled girls and women, who welcomed the French troops on their arrival at Thann in August, 1914, there were some who had cherished their communion veils for over forty years.

And now that this happy dream has come true, the white communion veils are again being laid away for another happy dream that promises not to be so long in coming. This is the marriage between Alsatian girls and the French soldiers who have redeemed their province for France, and already in the town of Thann alone four of these marriages have taken place, when white veils, worn at the first communion, then to welcome the French soldiers back to Alsace, were finally worn for the third and last time at the marriage ceremony which symbolized anew the union of France and Alsace.

The brides in these happy events had the additional pleasure of having the civil marriage ceremony performed by a Gallant French Captain, who having lost his right arm in the fighting to redeem Thann, now serves as the French military mayor, whilst the religious ceremony was performed by French priests who came in the wake of the French army.

PRIMARY HOLDS INTEREST TODAY

Warm Contests Mark Campaign in Several Cities—State Watches
Indianapolis.

EXPECT RESULT TO BE CLOSE

(By United Press.)
Indianapolis, Ind., March 6.—Primary elections were being held in the majority of Indiana cities today. The fight in many places was unusually warm and close contest are expected. This will be the last Indiana election which will be held for men exclusively. On the next day the polls are open—probably when the delegates to the constitution convention are elected in the autumn, women will cast their ballots with the men.

In Indianapolis interest centered in the race between Charles W. Jewett and Lew Shank, republican aspirants for the job of leading their party at the autumn election. Both have made strong campaigns and the vote will undoubtedly be close.

Considerable interest was evidenced in many parts of the state in the primary at Newcastle where there is an exceptionally hot fight in the republican ranks.

George A. Elliott, publisher of the Newcastle Courier is being backed by many of the leading business men of the city. J. Leb Watkins, present mayor and Bert Evans are also running.
